

Teshome Gebremedhin

Director

PFM Asset Management LLC

Tesh Gebremedhin is a director for PFM Asset Management's multi-asset class team. Since joining the firm in 2002, Tesh has been responsible for conducting portfolio management/trading activities for client portfolios under the direction of the Multi-Asset Class Investment Committee for the firm's multi-asset class discretionary management services. He also oversees the client services team responsible for the production of quarterly and monthly investment performance reports.

Prior to joining the firm, Tesh spent five years working for the Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC) in New York. During his time at DTCC he worked in various capacities, most recent as a senior compliance officer in membership administration ensuring that member firms or prospective members met all legal requirements and documentation in order to transact securities settlement and clearance through the DTCC and the National Securities Clearing Corporation. Prior to that he oversaw the dissemination of corporate action notifications to member firms for the conversions department. Prior to his time at DTCC, Tesh spent three years working for the Philadelphia Depository Trust Company in various capacities within the dividend and reorganization divisions.
